

Recognising Risks, Supporting Brighter Futures

Early Intervention Foundation National Conference

Tuesday 12 April 2016 | Royal College of Physicians, London, NW1 4LE

 @TheEIFoundation | #EIFNatCon

09.15	Registration &amp; coffee
10.00	Welcome from our Chair Dame Clare Tickell DBE, Chair, Early Intervention Foundation
10.05	Welcome from our sponsor Mark Raeburn, Director, Capita One
10.10	Picking up the signs and not the pieces: making early intervention a reality Carey Oppenheim, Chief Executive, Early Intervention Foundation Professor Leon Feinstein, Director of Evidence, Early Intervention Foundation Donna Molloy, Director of Dissemination, Early Intervention Foundation  Q&A
10.50	Break
11.10	Breakout A: How can we work together to spot risks and respond effectively? COUNCIL CHAMBER What are the models of multi-agency working that are showing promise? How do we develop locally based models that can spot and respond to risk in children, young people and families? What does this mean for how key public agencies and communities work?  Christine Davies CBE, Trustee, Early Intervention Foundation (Chair) Donna Molloy, Director of Dissemination, Early Intervention Foundation Ian Thomas, Strategic Director of Children's Services, Rotherham Council Dr Louise Morpeth, Chief Executive, Social Research Unit Dartington Ali Stathers-Tracey, Programme Director, Complex Dependency Programme (AM) Andy Rhodes, Deputy Chief Constable, Lancashire Police (PM)
	Breakout B: How can we support struggling parents in the early years? LINACRE ROOM What does the evidence tell us about which targeted programmes are effective? How do we target activity to respond to need? What does this mean for different workforces? How are communities and public services responding?

	Jean Gross CBE, Trustee, Early Intervention Foundation (Chair)  Dr Kirsten Asmussen, Evidence Analyst, Early Intervention Foundation  David Hoare, Chair, Ofsted  Candida Brudenell, Assistant Chief Executive, Nottingham Council  Professor Kathy Sylva, Professor of Educational Psychology, Oxford University
	Breakout C: Can supporting couple relationships improve children’s life chances?  SLOANE ROOM The importance of inter-parental relationships for child outcomes has been relatively neglected in approaches to early intervention. What does the evidence show and how should we improve practice? Honor Rhodes OBE, Trustee, Early Intervention Foundation (Chair)  Penny Mansfield CBE, Director, One Plus One  Professor Gordon Harold, Professor of Psychology, University of Sussex  Baroness Philippa Stroud, Chief Executive, Centre for Social Justice  Clare Burrell, Head of Commissioning, Vulnerable People, Essex County Council
	Breakout D: What can genetics tell us about the possibilities of early intervention?  In partnership with the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC)  DORCHESTER LIBRARY What are the implications of this for the feasibility of policy and practice to address intergenerational inequalities? Introduced by Professor Leon Feinstein, Director of Evidence, Early Intervention Foundation  Professor Anna Vignoles, Professor of Education, University of Cambridge (Chair)  Rachel Latham, Research Officer, Early Intervention Foundation and Developmental Psychology PhD student, University of Sussex  Professor Yulia Kovas, Professor of Genetics and Psychology, Goldsmiths, University of London  Gabriella Conti, Associate Professor (Reader) in Health Economics, UCL
12.20	Keynote address  The Rt Hon Stephen Crabb MP, Secretary of State for Work and Pensions
12.45	Lunch &amp; Exhibition
13.45	BREAKOUT SESSIONS REPEATED Breakout A: How can we work together to spot risks and respond effectively?  COUNCIL CHAMBER
	Breakout B: How can we support struggling parents in the early years?  LINACRE ROOM
	Breakout C: Can supporting couple relationships improve children’s life chances?  SLOANE ROOM

	Breakout D: What can genetics tell us about the possibilities of early intervention?  In partnership with the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC)  DORCHESTER LIBRARY
14.50	Break
15.10	Reflections from the UK &amp; Ireland: What are the big opportunities for early intervention in 2016-17? Dame Clare Tickell DBE, Chair, Early Intervention Foundation (Chair)  Professor Judy Hutchings, Director, Centre for Evidence Based Early Intervention, Bangor University  Celine McStravick, Director, National Children’s Bureau Northern Ireland  Karyn McCluskey, Director, Scottish Violence Reduction Unit  Lisa Harker, Chief Executive, The Art Room  Marian Quinn, Chief Executive Officer, Child Development Initiative
16.15	Closing words  Graham Allen MP, Founder, Early Intervention Foundation
16.30	End